REQUESTED ACTION:
Board approval of the agreement with ACT and SAT College Board.

SUMMARY EXPLANATION AND BACKGROUND:
4,300 identified 12th grade students are at risk of not meeting the reading concordant score required to graduate. An ACT test administered on Tuesday, April 28th, 2015, will provide an additional opportunity to test during a regular school day, helping students to potentially meet these requirements to graduate. These seniors will benefit from an additional test administration in the comfort of their home school along with the support of their home school staff. Instructional interventions to support students include materials and teacher training provided for free by Triumph College Admissions. Moreover, instructional and digital materials are in use by schools, to support these struggling seniors.
