

(Continuation of Financial Impact)

Routine maintenance consists of semi-annual general system cleaning to remove dirt in an effort to improve system output and an annual system check of electrical components along with the offset from energy produced is conservatively expected to result in a savings of more than $3,000 annually.