

Continuation of Summary Explanation and Background

The Third Amendment will also allow for the addition of one Broward County Commissioner to the Board. The remaining alternate voting members will continue to hold voting rights when one or more of the voting members are not present. Ultimately, the structure of the MPO's voting districts will not change as part of the amendment, and the total number of members (voting and alternate voting) will increase from 37 members to 38 members.