

Executive Summary

Third Amendment to Interlocal Agreement for Creation of the Broward Metropolitan Planning Organization

The parties of the Interlocal Agreement for Creation of the Broward Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) wish to increase the voting members from 19 to 25, in accordance with Section 339.175, Florida Statutes. This Third Amendment grants voting membership status to the Municipalities of Coconut Creek, Hallandale Beach, Margate, North Lauderdale and Oakland Park, which are currently alternate municipal representatives of the MPO. The Third Amendment also establishes an additional County Commissioner as a voting member. The Third Amendment will become effective upon 51% of the member governments approving the Third Amendment. The Third Amendment does not impact the voting membership status of the School Board of Broward County, Florida on the MPO.
