Project Description	The Individual Training Contract facilitates the delivery of occupational skills training on an individual basis to students referred by CareerSource Broward to the Broward Technical Colleges. Pell grants, scholarships, financial assistance grants and CSBD funds will be used to pay student tuitions, registrations, and lab fees. Referrals will be dependent upon individual student needs, fund availability, and CareerSource Broward policies governing individual referrals.
Evaluation Plan	Through monthly meetings with staff and through CareerSource Broward, data practices are presented regarding the services of students involved in this initiative as effective or in need of program improvement.
Research Methodology	The evaluation plan is aligned with Federal Regulations, as the Federal Government is the source of funds received by CareerSource Broward.
