None of the parties intend to directly or substantially benefit a third party by this Contract. The parties agree that there are no third party beneficiaries to this Contract and that no third party shall be entitled to assert a claim against any of the parties based upon this Contract. Nothing herein shall be construed as consent by an agency or political subdivision of the State of Florida to be sued by third parties in any matter arising out of any contract.

- 7.16 Independent Contractor. The parties to this Contract shall at all times be acting in the capacity of independent contractors and not as an officer, employee or agent of one another. - 7.23 Captions. The captions, section designations, section numbers, article numbers, titles and headings appearing in this Contract are inserted only as a matter of convenience, have no substantive meaning, and in no way define, limit, construe or describe the scope or intent of such articles or sections of this Contract, nor in any way effect this Contract and shall not be construed to create a conflict with the provisions of this Contract.
- 7.24 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or provisions contained in this Contract is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, unlawful, unenforceable or void in

- 7.25 Preparation of Contract. The parties acknowledge that they have sought and obtained whatever competent advice and counsel as was necessary for them to form a full and complete understanding of all rights and obligations herein and that the preparation of this Contract has been their joint effort. The language agreed to herein expresses their mutual intent and the resulting document shall not, solely as a matter of judicial construction, be construed more severely against one of the parties than the other.

- 7.27 Waiver. The parties agree that each requirement, duty and obligation set forth herein is substantial and important to the formation of this Contract and, therefore, is a material term hereof. Any party's failure to enforce any provision of this Contract shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or modification of this Contract unless the waiver is in writing and signed by the party waiving such provision. A written waiver shall only be effective as to the specific instance for which it is obtained and shall not be deemed a continuing or future waiver.
- 7.28 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be obligated to perform any duty, requirement or obligation under this Contract if such performance is prevented by fire, hurricane, earthquake, explosion, wars, sabotage, accident, flood, acts of God, strikes, or other labor disputes, riot or civil commotions, or by reason of any other matter or condition beyond the control of either party, and which cannot be overcome by reasonable diligence and without unusual expense ("Force Majeure").
