

This accounting will consist of all improvements (including high priority ones) that completed implementation in the last year; as well as the timeline to achieve completion of the remaining items still awaiting full implementation.

Additionally, this report should include a listing of each individual school's improvements, as well as district-wide improvements where the release of information would not jeopardize the safety of the schools.