In the event any Claim is brought against an Indemnified Party, LICENSEE shall, upon written notice from PACA, defend each Indemnified Party against each such Claim by counsel satisfactory to PACA or, at PACA's option, pay for an attorney selected by PACA's attorney to defend the Indemnified Party. Insurance Addendum

Performing Arts Center Authority
Tenant LICENSEE’s Liability Insurance Policy (TULIP)

Revised January 17, 2007

The Performing Arts Center Authority (“PACA”) requires general liability insurance for approved, third-party LICENSEEs (such as “LICENSEE,” as defined in License Agreement) of PACA facilities. This insurance requirement can be satisfied by providing a certificate of insurance showing evidence of proper general liability insurance. Due to the inability of some third party users is to obtain general liability insurance on their own, PACA is now enrolled in the Tenant User’s Liability Insurance Policy (TULIP) designed for third-party facility LICENSEEs who need to purchase general liability insurance.

TULIP is a low-cost insurance policy that protects both the facility user(s) (such as LICENSEE) and PACA. The policy applies to bodily injury or property damage arising out of the use of PACA premises by external users (third parties with no relation to the institution and no institutional financial support). Premium costs for Class 1, 2, 3 Users will be paid by the third party user (such as LICENSEE) and are outlined below:

Renters	Daily Rate
Au-Rene Theatre	$900.00

FAQs:

1. Who is responsible for the cost of the TULIP?

The third party user (such as LICENSEE) is responsible for the cost of the TULIP and will pay for it via the event settlement or invoice.

2. What is the coverage and limits of this policy?

Coverage	Limit
Each Occurrence	$1,000,000.00
Personal & Advertising Injury	$1,000,000.00
Fire Damage (any one fire)	$50,000.00
Medical Payments (any one person)	Excluded

3. Is Workers' Compensation included as part of this policy?

No. Workers' Compensation must be separately secured by the user. .

4. What proof will there be that the coverage is in place?

The user will receive a certificate of insurance upon request to PACA.

5. Is it necessary to use PACA’s TULIP program?

It is necessary to provide proof of insurance coverage within the time period stated in the License Agreement. It is not necessary to obtain this coverage through PACA.
