| Project Description | Under the auspices of Florida Statute, Chapter 932.701-706, "Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act," the Broward Sheriff's Office make funds available for distribution in the Broward community. These funds are better known by their common name - Law Enforcement Trust Funds (LETF). Through the use of LETF, Broward County Public Schools is the recipient of a grant award to support the Criminal Justice Academy at Whiddon-Rogers Education Center. The Criminal Justice Academy is designed to introduce students to various careers in all major areas in the criminal justice system. Students are provided with information to develop tools necessary to work and become successful in the criminal justice community. |
| Evaluation Plan | Students will be evaluated on their knowledge gains in these areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the history, goals, and career opportunities; • Interpret ethics and professionalism; • Describe court systems and trial processes; • Discuss the juvenile justice system; • Describe the correctional system; • Utilize personal, interpersonal, and communication skills. |
| Research Methodology | The data suggests that there is a need to implement the Criminal Justice Academy at Whiddon-Rogers Education Center with our population of students due to our student population who, for a variety of reasons were not successful in the traditional school setting and are in need of a second opportunity to obtain their high school diploma. |
| Alignment with Strategic Plan | This grant supports District Strategic Plan Goal 1: High-Quality Instruction by incorporating college and career readiness skills from the criminal justice and security sector. |
| Level of Support provided by GAGP | Level 3 - GAGP staff facilitated the agreement review with the high school and the General Counsel's Office (GCO), served as the messenger between GCO and BSO for language negotiations, wrote the executive summary for the board agenda, prepared a hard copy of the file for record keeping, and managed the item for the Board's approval. |
