Fort Lauderdale Children's Theater	Why Mosquitoes Buzz	Language Arts/Social Studies/Theatre	2-4	"Why Mosquitoes Buzz" is an African myth and folktale created to answer the young child's request of why? There are many folktales and myths that have been passed down from generation to generation. They share what is important in a culture and celebrate traditions. In Africa, stories were told around the fire each evening not only as entertainment, but to teach and inform younger generations. It is our responsibility to continue the traditions that came before us. As we share the stories of Rabbit, Python, Monkey, Rooster, and Mosquito, we pass them on and on until they become, once again, part of who we are.	4	Amaturo Theater	2,320	$3,200
Florida Studio Theatre	Playmakers Tour	Humanities/ Language Arts/ Theater	K-5	The "Playmakers Tour" is geared to inspire your students to write their own plays and participate in our 2020 Young Playwrights Festival. As a model, professional actors will perform at least two award-winning plays written by young playwrights. The show also teaches playwriting basics by using improvisation and participatory learning tools to inspire writing.	10	School Based	5,000	$5,500
Gold Coast Jazz Society	JazzSLAM	Language Arts/Social Studies/Music	4-5	Gold Coast Jazz Society presents "JazzSLAM," an exciting interactive and fast-paced musical program, which integrates the music of jazz with elements of Language Arts, Math and Social Studies to help students with critical thinking skills and strategies for test taking. The hour long live and interactive presentation features a professional jazz quartet led by music educator, Mari Bell. Students interact with the performance as they participate in a live "rhythm orchestra." They learn how musical forms relate to essay writing as they follow the lyrics and sing along with the live jazz band. Students gain a greater understanding of math concepts such as fractions and percentages through the subdivision of rhythm and timing.	20	School Based	4,000	$5,000
