Today's Agenda

School boundary committee recommendations and community input on proposals

Update on 2020-21 Cambridge Programs

Update on replication of 2020-21 Army Military Leadership North

School Concept: Adjacent elementary and middle schools sharing under-utilized exiting resources giving students and families enhanced educational opportunities

Community Input

- Concern over lack of collaboration in the process
- Concern over program funding and SMART bond alignment
- Concern with mixed student maturity levels and safety

School Boundary Committee Recommendations

Committee Against
District Proposals	School Boundary Committee Recommendations	Community Input
Bethune/ Attucks PreK8 (S-1 District proposal)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committee 18:1 Against • Great idea but lacks community buy in at this time • May prevent students matriculating in theme to Parkway Middle for the Arts • Community not in favor of moving forward 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attucks Middle increasing enrollment • Distance between schools • Repair the buildings within the two schools then change gradually • A lack of community collaboration
Broward Estates/ Parkway K8 (S-3 District proposal)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committee 16:3 Against • More time needed for community involvement/discussion • Move forward with continued discussions • Extending the Gifted down to the elementary would improve the school 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • N/A

Committee In Favor
Driftwoods PreK8 (S-2 District proposal)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committee 11:8 In Favor • Middle school teachers can get to know students better • Concern parents may remove elementary students • No strong community support for this proposal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Traffic concerns by going from 2 drop off times to 1 will have many parents arriving at one time in a small residential area • Desire for supervised bus transportation, common area, and before and after care cost • Elementary concerned their school grade will suffer • Elementary parents and staff feel they are taking all the risk

Community Proposal	School Boundary Committee Recommendations	Community Input
Hollywood Central PreK8 (C-1 Community proposal)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committee 16:3 in favor • Concerned existing teachers will not have jobs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Olsen Middle School staff believe another choice opportunity in the area will further decrease their enrollment impacting the magnet program • Parents want the choice to either attend Hollywood Central Elementary or Olsen Middle • Some Hollywood Central Elementary staff may apply to teach at other schools • Many parents from the impacted area feel a public K8 school is an opportunity for this area
