SIM

Impact of COVID-19 on the 2024 Strategic Plan

Executive Summary

- SIM performed an updated Environmental Scan.
- The depth and duration of disruption from COVID-19 will affect State and Local funding.
- Will require extensive analysis of the District's human capital requirements and organizational structures.
- Anticipated funding constraints intensify the need to optimize facility usage.
- Shifts in emphasis may be warranted.
  - Short-term: six (6) months to one-year timeframe
- An impact on 2024 Strategic Plan execution timelines will result from social distancing, work adaptations, new critical needs, shifts in emphasis, and delays in investment.
  - Long-term: Remaining duration of existing 2024 Strategic Plan

Guiding Questions

Short-term (6 months – 1 year)

- Managing through the crisis. What is our perspective on the impact of COVID-19? What do we see as our most urgent needs where a greater concentration of Broward's resources may be warranted?
- Potential discussion topics:
  - Summer School
  - Stakeholder engagement in short-term planning activities
  - Prioritized Essential Services (Academics and Operations) for Summer and Back-to-School periods
  - Etc.

Long-term (+1yr – SY2024)

- Navigating through difficult funding realities ahead. We anticipate a scenario where needs are greater while resources are even more constrained: As we pursue our mission, are there alternatives, trade-offs, or opportunities for expanding or redeploying our capacity that we should investigate?
- Potential discussion topics:
  - School reopening; role of distant learning
  - Re-enrollment; Market share
  - Remediation programs
  - Redesign how we do business
  - Etc.

Updates to the Board are planned for June 2020

Impact of COVID-19 on the 2024 Strategic Plan

Background

- SIM performed an updated Environmental Scan to analyze the potential effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the District's 2024 Strategic Plan.
- This analysis considers effects on existing work as well as shifts in emphasis that may be warranted as we navigate through the crisis and its aftermath.
- Data and research from the Florida Department of Health, Centers for Disease Control, McKinsey & Co., FiveThirtyEight, S & P Global, and Investopedia are used to develop a view on the effects of COVID-19 on the US economy, Florida's economy, and school funding.
- In addition, Monthly Campaign calls and internal interviews with 2024 Strategic Plan Initiative Leads inform this analysis.
- The effects of the recent Great Recession on school funding for Broward are considered, as they may shape our expectations on the depth and duration of the disruption caused by COVID-19.
- The conclusions from SIM's 2024 Strategic Plan Resourcing analysis, completed in September 2019, provide a starting point for assessing the resourcing implications on each Initiative in light of the current situation.
- The situation is changing rapidly each passing day. There is a short "shelf life" for some of the information presented herein.

Executive Summary (1 of 2)

- Florida ranks 8th in the US for COVID-19 cases, with Broward accounting for 15% of cases statewide.
- COVID-19 in Broward has reached all corners of the county, with six “hot zones”. Cases are reported across all age groups.
- Consumer sentiment, a key economic indicator, will be influenced by how worried Americans are about COVID-19.
- Economic recovery scenarios depend on the effectiveness of the public health response and economic policy interventions.
- What we observe suggests that we’re experiencing neither the best- nor worst-case scenario, but something in between.
- Nevertheless, COVID-19 impact on the US economy could exceed anything since WW II.
- The decline in market capitalization varies across sectors. Some of the hardest hit sectors represent a major part of Florida’s economy.

Impact of COVID-19 on the 2024 Strategic Plan

Executive Summary (2 of 2)

- The impact of COVID-19 is likely to be deeper than the 2008 financial crisis, but more solid fundamentals and stronger interventions will help keep it shorter.
- Only through the District's investments in technology has mission continuity been possible.
- Triggered by the crisis, accelerated investment in Microsoft Teams offers attractive near-term ROI and has propelled implementation of the Internal Communications Initiative.
- Broward's COVID-19 hot zones cross all income levels, but the economically disadvantaged will suffer most.
- With salaries accounting for ~ 80% of the District's budget, anticipated funding declines will require extensive analysis of the District's human capital requirements and organizational structures to ensure alignment with critical needs.
- Excluding safety and security, major investments in technology without discernible, short-term ROI are likely to be delayed, possibly beyond the 5-year planning horizon.
- Anticipated funding constraints, coupled with projected declines in enrollment, intensify the need to optimize facility usage.
- The extension of 2024 Strategic Plan execution timelines will result from social distancing, work adaptations, new critical needs, shifts in emphasis, and delays in investment. The overall impact of COVID-19 will vary across initiatives.
- Broward's 2024 Strategic Plan is a flexible, dynamic, living document to guide the District, designed to adapt to change.

Virus Spread & Public Health Response

Rapid, effective control of virus spread

Effective response, but regional resurgence

Broad failure of public health interventions

Economic Policy Response

*NOTE: Shown later in this analysis, McKinsey & Co. has developed GDP forecasts based on Scenarios 1 and 2 above.

What we observe suggests that we're experiencing neither the best-nor worst-case scenario, but something in between.

Factors driving Optimism

- Success of social distancing
- More mild/undetected cases than originally expected
- Lower hospitalization rates than feared
- Generally competent responses by State and Local governments

- Deaths are underreported substantially
- Little consensus on how and when to reopen the country
- Stalled testing
- Uncertainties around immunity persist

Factors driving Pessimism

COVID-19 impact on the US economy could exceed anything since WW II.

▪ Scenario 1: Muted world recovery

▪ Scenario 2: Virus contained within 1 quarter

Looking Ahead: Impact on School Funding

The depth and duration of disruption from COVID-19 will affect State and Local funding sources for school districts.

Depth of Disruption

How much does demand for products and services contract?

Duration of Disruption

How long will the disruption from COVID-19 last?

Key Indicators

- Growth in COVID-19 cases
- Extent of shifts in behavior
- Reduction in demand for durable goods
- Drop in travel
- Evidence of seasonality of virus
- Availability of therapies, vaccines
- Late payments & credit defaults
- Unemployment claims

Broward's experience during the Great Recession informs our funding and planning expectations.

Depth

- ↓ 24 pt. decline in property tax base
- ↓ 12 pt. decline in General Fund
- ↓ 25 pt. decline in Capital Millage
- ↓ $2.1B loss in Capital Funding

Duration

- 7-years for General Fund to recover to pre-recession levels
- Capital Fund has not recovered

Through our experiences with tragedy, natural disasters, recessions, and the pandemic, we embrace key learnings.

Triage your response with clear priorities.

Recovery work must reflect that crises differ in magnitude and duration.

Employees – treat them well! Don't neglect self-care either.

Communicate with consistent messages through multiple channels, regularly.

Build indigenous capacity through partners and local businesses.

Be mindful, deliberate, and decisive; don't be distracted by noise!

Protocols matter; they should reflect our values and be scrupulously followed. Keep them simple!

The impact of COVID-19 is likely to be deeper than the 2008 financial crisis, but more solid fundamentals and stronger interventions will help keep it shorter.

Before the Great Recession...

- “Too Big to Fail” modus operandi among investment firms
- Poorly regulated financial sector
- Risky behavior of financial institutions
- Exuberant borrowing by Consumers and Businesses
- Household debt :: GDP 99%

Response to Crisis...

Bank Bailouts,
Modest Stimulus

Better fundamentals leading up to COVID-19...

- More resilient financial system
- Stricter regulations around capital, asset, funding, and income structures
- Stronger consumer protections
- Household debt :: GDP 75%

Targeted Federal Assistance,
Aggressive Stimulus

Conclusions & Next Steps

Broward's 2024 Strategic Plan is a flexible, dynamic, living document to guide the District, designed to adapt to change.

- Unlike the demand shocks experienced by other industries, public education is a right; demand for public education continues unabated.
- Many unknowns persist, but it is clear that COVID-19 related immediate response actions across BCPS will delay implementation of the Strategic Plan in the short-term.
- We anticipate cuts in State funding. We must vigilantly watch for triggers, such as changes in the rate of spread, the development of new therapies, credit defaults, etc., that will shape the depth and duration of the disruption.
- Anticipated funding cuts require that we revisit planning assumptions, especially for those Initiatives where investment needs are high, where implementation is likely to extend beyond the 2024 planning horizon.
- Providing a high-quality education to all students is our mission. COVID-19 exacerbates some of our greatest challenges, (e.g., the achievement gap, student engagement). To respond effectively, we must ensure that resources are aligned appropriately.
- Public education is a people business. Amid heightened challenges, the need for the optimal allocation of human capital becomes a critical success factor.

Next Steps: BCPS is addressing many complex topics associated with when and how to re-open schools responsibly.
