

Summary Explanation and Background

In accordance with a School Board request, Atlantic Technical College administers surveys to aid in measuring the effectiveness of the clinical experience. These surveys will be completed by students, Health Science Education teachers, and select staff of the facility. The results of the surveys are used to make recommendations for modifying clinical agreements that will strengthen the student's job-site experience and the overall Health Science Education Program.