WHEREAS, women of every race, class, and ethnic background have played many significant roles in the various societies throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, in many recorded and unrecorded circumstances, American women have contributed greatly to the forward and positive movement of this country. However, in spite of these numerous contributions and achievements in American history, the role of women has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the aggregate of past events; and

WHEREAS, on the local level, the Commission on the Status of Women and the Women's History Coalition are providing a valuable service to the community through their purposes and programs.
